Applications are now being accepted for the Naughton Fellowships, which allow STEM students to experience international research and educational opportunities through a funded exchange program involving some of Ireland’s leading research universities. Applications are open for Notre Dame undergraduate, Masters, and Ph.D students.

naughton.nd.edu

Visit naughton.nd.edu for further information and to apply. Applications close on February 2, 2018.