

UNIVERSITY OF SAGRADO CORAZÓN, SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO

LEARNING IN A TIME OF CRISIS

STORIES FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF SAGRADO CORAZÓN

After Hurricane María ravaged the island of Puerto Rico on Sept 20, 2017, many schools and universities were closed for weeks, or even months. One of the first institutions to open its doors to students, faculty, and staff, was the Universidad del Sagrado Corazón. We invite you to join the panel “Learning in a Time of Crisis” to listen to Sagrado’s story of recovery and resilience in the aftermath of disaster.

The panel will feature Sagrado’s President, Gilberto Marxuach, the Director of the Ferré Rangel School of Communications, Dr. Gabriel Paizy, and the documentary filmmaker, Professor Sonia Fritz.

This event is free and open to the public. Reception to follow.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 22, 2018
ROOM 1030, JENKINS-NANOVIC HALL
4:00PM - 6:30PM

This event is hosted by the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures with co-sponsorship from the Institute for Latino Studies and the Office of the Provost.
